- 2) A detailed Curriculum Vitae (CV).
- 3) Any documents or information the candidate deems to support his/her nomination (optional).
- 4) A Cover Letter of interest for the selection of the candidate for the position of an external member (optional).

Applications are filed, wherein any candidate is informed electronically of the reference number assigned to his/her application.

The final date for submission of applications shall be March 30th 2026, on Monday, at 23:59 p.m. Greece local time (Current time zone offset: UTC/GMT +3:00 hours).

C. EVALUATION PROCEDURE OF NOMINATIONS

After the completion of the evaluation procedure of nominations in the context of the present Call for Proposals, applications are compiled by the competent administrative authority that has undertaken the support of the process and forwarded with its due diligence to the internal members of the Management Board of the Agricultural University of Athens, as these are indicated by direct and universal vote, along with the article 9 of the Law No. 4957/2022 and the Priority B'/ No. 99286/Z1'/08/08/2022 Joint Decision of the Minister of Education and Religious Affairs and the Minister of State (B' 4211).

Within fifteen (15) days following the nominations deadline, the Rector of the Agricultural University of Athens summons the internal members to a meeting, with reference to the evaluation of all the applications submitted and the nomination of the external members in the light of (3) of article 10 of the above Law.

The responsibility for coordinating the proceedings of the meeting rests with the internal member of the Governing Board who ranks first in order of preference, that is, the internal member who was elected first with the highest number of first-preference votes.

The Responsibility for coordinating the proceedings of the meeting, rests with the internal member of the Governing Council (G.C.) who ranked first in order of preference, that is, the internal member elected first in order with the highest number of first-preference votes. The serving Rector of the Higher Education Institution (H.E.I.) does not participate in the meeting of the internal members, unless he or she has been elected as an internal member, in which case the Rector participates in that capacity. The meeting may be attended by the Head of the General Directorate of Administrative and Financial Services of the H.E.I. or his/her lawful deputy, or, if for any reason they are absent or unable to attend, by the Head of the Administrative Directorate of the H.E.I. or his/her lawful deputy, who is responsible for keeping the minutes, collecting ballots, and recording any objections submitted, as well as one (1) technology and communications support staff member to assist with the electronic voting process. These individuals are appointed by act of the Rector.

The duties of the Election Conducting Body (E.C.B.) are performed by the internal member of the G.C. who ranked first in order of preference.

The E.C.B. must ensure the substantive and unhindered exercise of the voting rights of the internal members, oversee the correct and orderly conduct of the electronic voting procedure, provide support and resolve any issues that arise during it, and draft and sign the final election report. In performing these duties, the E.C.B. is supported by the competent administrative services of the H.E.I. responsible for personnel matters and digital governance, particularly with respect to submitting information to the “Digital Ballot ZEUS” information system.

At the beginning of the meeting for the selection of external members, the candidacies submitted are examined to determine whether they meet the requirements of Article 2. The internal members decide on the validity of the candidacies by open vote. The decision on the validity of each candidacy is taken by absolute majority of the members present. In the event of a tie, the vote of the first-elected internal member prevails.

The E.C.B., in cooperation with GUnet S.A., prepares the unified ballot in accordance with the decision of paragraph 4, which includes in alphabetical order all names of the candidates for external members along with their status, in accordance with Annex I of this decision. The printed ballot form includes a lined table with three (3) numbered columns and a number of rows equal to the number of candidates. In the first column, the grade is entered in accordance with Article 5 of this decision; in the second column, the candidate’s full name and father’s name; and in the third column, the candidate’s status.

The five (5) external members are selected in five (5) successive rounds in which five (5) separate ballots are conducted, each electing one external member.

Objections during the election process are submitted in writing to the E.C.B. and temporarily suspend the election procedure. A vote is conducted immediately on whether to accept or reject the objection, with the decision taken by majority of the internal members present.

If for any reason it is not possible to select all or some of the external members within the deadline set in the preceding paragraph, the authority to select the external members is transferred to the Senate of the H.E.I.

D. OBLIGATIONS OF THE EXTERNAL MANAGEMENT BOARD MEMBERS

The Management Board of the HEI shall exercise the responsibilities falling within article 14 of the Law No. 4957/2022, whereas its organization and functioning are governed by the provisions outlined in article 13 under the same Law and the Code of Administrative Procedure in relation to the meetings of the Collegiate Bodies.

E. PROVISION OF INFORMATION
